Sites near the hotel

Around Porec island are rich and beautiful nature sites.
In a short distance from the hotel, you will find yourself in the most beautiful places in the world!

Venetia

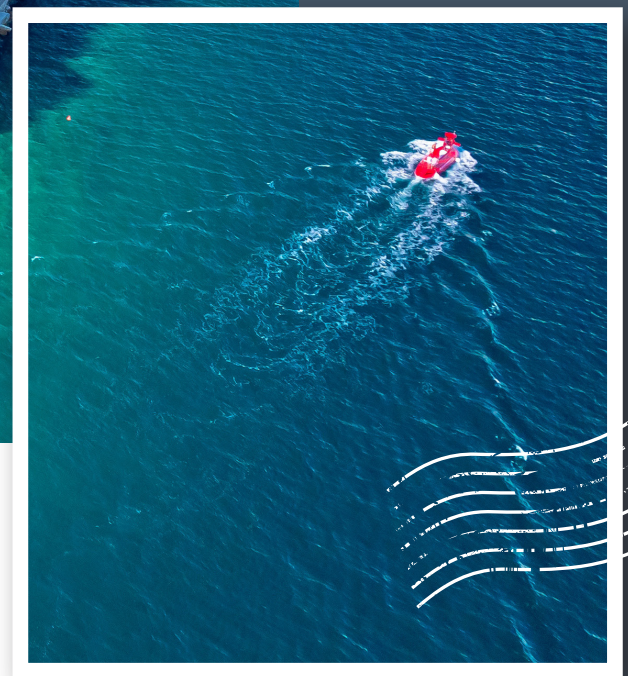

Venetia is the capital of Vento district and the capital of Venetia Canton in north-east Italy. The city lies on a lagoon on the estuary of the Po River into the Adriatic Sea. Venetia's buildings are laid upon wooden poles that were cast on 118 islands, connected by about 400 bridges. Between the islands are about 170 canals, while sailing through them is the main mode of transportation in the city. Venetia is one of the most popular tourism sites in the world!

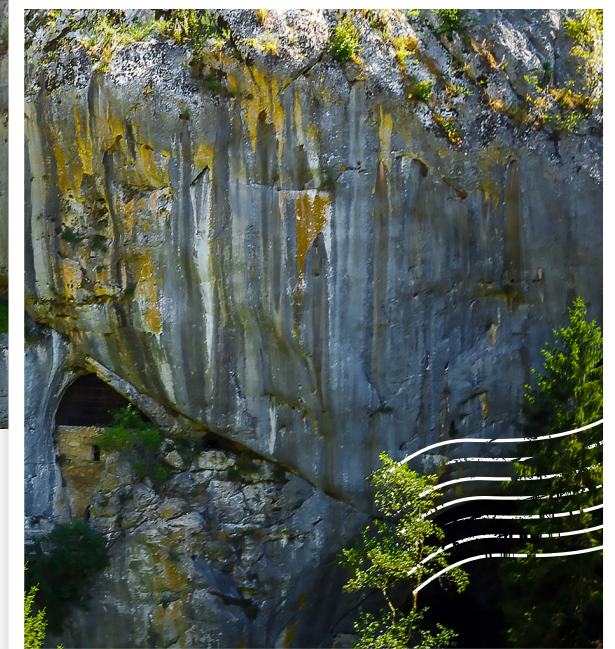

Rubini

Rubini is a town on the peninsula Istria in Croatia, on the Adriatic Sea. The ancient part of Rubini is built on a small peninsula. The town is a popular tourist site and has an active fishing port. The European Council built a historical research center here.

Postojna

Postojna is a city in the south-west of Slovenia, about 35 kilometers from Trieste in Italy. The city is the capital of Notransko-Krashka and the Kanton of Postojna. The city is on the banks of the Pivka river and near it is the Postojna cave. One of the most popular tourist sites in Slovenia.

Bohinj lake

The Bohinj lake is largest permanent lake in Slovenia. It lies in the Bohinj valley in the Julian alps in the north-east of Slovenia. The lake is fed by the river Savitza, that stream from the mountains, partially by a waterfall. From its other side, it feeds the river Sava Bohinjka, one of the two rivers that create the Sava River. Bohinj lake is an iceberg lake and is very popular as a tourist site and as a water sports site.

Plitvice

The Plitvice Lake district is a famous national park and a tourist attraction in the country. The park has been named a worldwide tradition site. The park is famous for its many waterfalls, including the great waterfall (Veliki slap) and the Glovacki buk waterfall.
