the nature

Around Porec island there are amazing nature wonders.
A short distance you will find the most beautiful nature sites in the world!

Venetia
is the capital of Vento County and Venetia area. The city lies by the lagoon of the Po River and the Adriatic Sea. Venetia is all built on wooden beams erected on 118 islands, connected by 400 bridges.
170 canals flow between the islands, and the main transportation is by the famous Gondola boats.
Venetia is rightfully one of the most popular touring sites in the world.

An aerial photograph of the coastal town of Rubini in Croatia. The town is built on a rocky peninsula, with a prominent white church with a tall bell tower. The water is a vibrant blue-green, and a small red boat is visible in the lower right. The sky is clear and blue. A large white 'R' is partially visible on the right side of the image.

Rubini is a quaint town on the Istria peninsula, Croatia. The old part of Rubini is on a tiny peninsula, and a popular tourist attraction. There is an active fishers port, and a history research center built by the Europe council.

Rubini

Postojna is a city in south-west Slovenia, about 35 km from Triesta, Italy. The city is the capital of Nutrensko – Kraska county. The city lies on the banks of Pivka River, near Postojna cave, which is a popular tourist site in Slovenia.

A wide-angle landscape photograph of Lake Bohinj in Slovenia. The lake is a deep blue, reflecting the sky and the surrounding mountains. The mountains are covered in dense forests with trees in various shades of autumn, including yellow, orange, and red. A small white church with a dark roof is visible on the right side of the lake. The sky is filled with large, white clouds. The overall scene is a beautiful representation of a natural landscape in autumn.

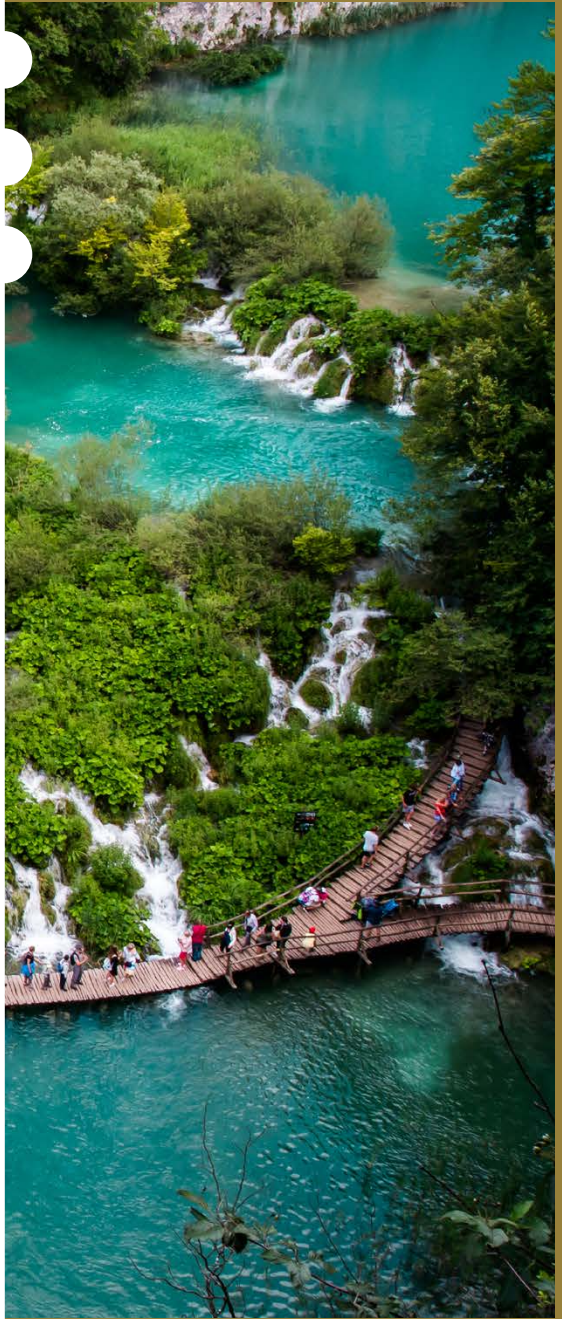

Lake Bohinj is the largest lake in Slovenia. Located in the Julian Alps in north-eastern Slovenia, the lake is fed by the Savitha River, flowing from the mountains and ending in a waterfall. The lake is the source of Savva Bohinjka River on its other side, one of the two rivers forming the Savva River. Lake Bohinj is an iceberg lake, popular as a tourist site and water sports.
