ROVINJ

Rovinj is a charming ancient town built upon half of a small island on the western coast of the Istrian peninsula in Croatia. The town, famous for its active fishing port, is a popular tourist attraction and home to a historical research center built by the Council of Europe.

★★★★★

POSTOJNA

The charming town of Postojna is the capital of the Notranjsko-Kraska region located in southwestern Slovenia, only 35 kilometers from Trieste, Italy. Postojna lies on the banks of the Pivka River, near the world famous Postojna Cave which is one of the most famous tourist attractions in all of Slovenia.

★★★★★

LAKE BOHINJ

Lake Bohinj, or Bohinjsko jezero in German, is one of the largest lakes in Slovenia and located in the Bohinj Valley of the Julian Alps. The lake is fed by the Savica River which descends from the mountains via a dazzling waterfall. A glacial lake dammed by a moraine, Lake Bohinj is a favorite site for tourism and water sports.

★★★★★
PLITVICE LAKES

Plitvice Lakes National Park is the most popular tourist attraction in Croatia and part of the UNESCO World Heritage registry since 1979. It's renowned for its 16 cascading lakes and incredible waterfalls, particularly the 78-meter Veliki Stap and 25-meter Galovački Buk falls.
